

SCIENCES PO

The 'Bienvenue en France' Label is awarded to higher education institutions that develop quality-driven services for international students. Such services include comprehensive information, orientation and welcome services, tutoring, campus life, as well as post-graduate support. In addition, a proven commitment to sustainable development and social and environmental responsibility must be provided.

Sciences Po is an international research university, both selective and open onto the world, ranking among the finest institutions in the fields of humanities and social sciences. Created in 1872, Sciences Po is ranked 2nd internationally in Politics and International Studies in the 2024 QS World University Rankings. Sciences Po trains future decision-makers in the public and private sectors, students are encouraged to keep an open mind and adopt different perspectives. Sciences Po offers Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral degrees, a wide range of dual degree programmes, all open to international students via our international admissions pathways.

Sponsorship (students, families)

At the beginning of classes, a team of Sciences Po students will be on hand in all main buildings located on campus to present our services, answer your questions and give you some hints on how to take full advantage of them. Feel free to ask them all your questions!

International Student help desk

- ✓ To facilitate arrival in France
Take full advantage of our Student Services: you can receive guidance concerning the processing and renewal of your residence permit, the French healthcare system, opening a French bank account, housing opportunities, student jobs, information on public transport, student welfare...

Housing

- ✓ Specialized housing services
Consult our housing offers or post your own offer for renting or apartment sharing! Sciences Po publishes more than 3800 housing offers every year. We also have partnership agreements with public and private housing organisations: feel free to contact the housing department or the campus staff to know more about these housing opportunities. Our teams remain available to help you find accommodation, even if you will join our campuses after the beginning of classes.

CAMPUS LIFE

Health services

Dedicated to the health and welfare of all students, the Health Centre is here to inform and support you and to help you finding an adapted health professional, if needed.

Services for the disabled

The Disability Support Service is here to make the necessary arrangements in regards to your needs and the teaching formats, facilitate communication between you and your teaching staff.

Social and psychological services

The Health centre provides with free consultations (infirmary, general practitioners, psychological support unit), with or without an appointment, on all campuses.

Student associations

Every year, around 300 student associations or initiatives of all kinds contribute to the dynamism of student life throughout the different Sciences Po campuses. Student associations and initiatives enable students to interact around common aspirations and share their areas of interest with an academic community of exceptional richness.

Academic year kickoff event, welcome seminar ¹

Cultural and Athletic offering ¹

Each semester, students at Sciences Po have the opportunity to sign up for one or more sports activities, organised by Sciences Po, the Sports Clubs (Associations sportives) or external partners, depending on the campus.
